COMPLAINT

COLLECTIVE ACTION UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

ECF Case

Plaintiff Mario Lopez Cuyuch (a.k.a. Alex) (“Plaintiff Lopez” or “Mr. Lopez”), individually and on behalf of others similarly situated, by and through his attorneys, Michael Faillace & Associates, P.C., upon his knowledge and belief, and as against Wealthy Trade Inc. (d/b/a Wanisa Home Kitchen), Raga Corp. (d/b/a Wanisa Home Kitchen), Rhynchospora Inc. (d/b/a Wanisa Home Kitchen), (“Defendant Corporations”), Wachiraporn Udomsak, Bakul Miah, and Tanit Doe, (“Individual Defendants”), (collectively, “Defendants”), alleges as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. Plaintiff Lopez is a former employee of Defendants Wealthy Trade Inc. (d/b/a Wanisa Home Kitchen), Raga Corp. (d/b/a Wanisa Home Kitchen), Rhynchospira Inc. (d/b/a Wanisa Home Kitchen), Wachiraporn Udomsak, Bakul Miah, and Tanit Doe.

2. Defendants own, operate, or control a Thai restaurant, located at 142 Smith St, Brooklyn, NY 11201 under the name “Wanisa Home Kitchen.”

3. Upon information and belief, individual Defendants Wachiraporn Udomsak, Bakul Miah, and Tanit Doe, serve or served as owners, managers, principals, or agents of Defendant Corporations and, through these corporate entities, operate or operated the restaurant as a joint or unified enterprise.

4. Plaintiff Lopez was employed as a cook at the restaurant located at 142 Smith St, Brooklyn, NY 11201.

5. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Plaintiff Lopez worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate minimum wage, overtime, and spread of hours compensation for the hours that he worked.

6. Rather, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff Lopez appropriately for any hours worked, either at the straight rate of pay or for any additional overtime premium.

7. Further, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff Lopez the required “spread of hours” pay for any day in which he had to work over 10 hours a day.

8. Furthermore, Defendants repeatedly failed to pay Plaintiff Lopez wages on a timely basis.

9. Defendants’ conduct extended beyond Plaintiff Lopez to all other similarly situated employees.

10. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Lopez and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

11. Plaintiff Lopez now brings this action on behalf of himself, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum and overtime wages pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. (“FLSA”), and for violations of the N.Y. Labor Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the “NYLL”), and the “spread of hours” and overtime wage orders of the New York Commissioner of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. tit. 12, § 146-1.6 (herein the “Spread of Hours Wage Order”), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys’ fees and costs.

12. Plaintiff Lopez seeks certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of himself, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

13. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the FLSA, and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff Lopez’s state law claims under 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

14. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all, or a substantial portion of, the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district, Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate a Thai restaurant located in this district. Further, Plaintiff Lopez was employed by Defendants in this district.

39. Defendants employed Plaintiff Lopez as a cook.

40. Plaintiff Lopez regularly handled goods in interstate commerce, such as food and other supplies produced outside the State of New York.

41. Plaintiff Lopez's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

42. Throughout his employment with Defendants, Plaintiff Lopez regularly worked in excess of 40 hours per week.

43. From approximately January 2018 until on or about May 2018, Plaintiff Lopez worked from approximately 11:00 a.m. until on or about 10:15 p.m., 3 or 4 days a week and from approximately 11:00 a.m. until on or about 10:45 p.m., 2 days a week (typically 57.25 to 68.5 hours per week).

49. From approximately September 24, 2018 until on or about October 2018, Defendants paid Plaintiff Lopez a fixed salary of $520 per week .

50. From approximately October 2018 until on or about January 30, 2019, Defendants paid Plaintiff Lopez a fixed salary of $700 per week.

51. For approximately one day, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff Lopez any wages for his work; which is approximately $140.

52. Plaintiff Lopez's pay did not vary even when he was required to stay later or work a longer day than his usual schedule.

53. For example, Defendants required Plaintiff Lopez to work an additional 5 minutes past his scheduled departure time every day, and did not pay him for the additional time he worked.

54. Prior to January 2019, no notification, either in the form of posted notices or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff Lopez regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

55. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Lopez an accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

56. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff Lopez, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Lopez's primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

57. Defendants required Plaintiff Lopez to purchase "tools of the trade" with his own funds—including two or three pairs of kitchen shoes.

Defendants' General Employment Practices

58. At all times relevant to this Complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff Lopez (and all similarly situated employees) to work in excess of 40 hours a week without paying him appropriate minimum wage, spread of hours pay, and overtime compensation as required by federal and state laws.

59. Plaintiff Lopez was a victim of Defendants' common policy and practices which violate his rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by, inter alia, not paying him the wages he was owed for the hours he worked.

60. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiff Lopez not receiving payment for all his hours worked, and resulted in Plaintiff Lopez's effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum wage rate.

61. Defendants habitually required Plaintiff Lopez to work additional hours beyond his regular shifts but did not provide him with any additional compensation.

62. Defendants paid Plaintiff Lopez his wages by personal checks and then by direct deposit.

63. Prior to January 2019, Defendants failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

64. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff Lopez (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff Lopez properly for his full hours worked.

65. Defendants engaged in their unlawful conduct pursuant to a corporate policy of minimizing labor costs and denying employees compensation by knowingly violating the FLSA and NYLL.

66. Defendants' unlawful conduct was intentional, willful, in bad faith, and caused significant damages to Plaintiff Lopez and other similarly situated former workers.

67. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Lopez and other employees with accurate wage statements at the time of their payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked; and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

68. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff Lopez and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

70. At all relevant times, Plaintiff Lopez and other members of the FLSA Class were similarly situated in that they had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and have been subject to Defendants' common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay them the required minimum wage and
